

WOLLASTON GARDEN CLUB
Annual Members' Garden Tour
June 25, 2009

All members are cordially invited to our
Annual Members' Garden Tour & Progressive Dinner
Viewing 4 new gardens...

Carpoolers should meet at the Wollaston Congregational Church at 4:45 to 5:15 pm on June 25, if you intend to car-pool and/or get directions. Please car-pool whenever feasible, as parking may be difficult at some of the locations. If you are unable to be there at 5 and would like to join us later, please note the times below...

Call Gail Morganelli at 617-479-7069 to make a required reservation.
Cynthia Lewis, Horticulture Committee Chair for the event

The garden tour schedule is as follows:

Claire Currier 5:15 - 6:00 pm

45 Packard Drive, Braintree - Appetizers-- Hostess - Susan Lynch

Marnie Dunn 6:00 - 6:45 pm

31 Washington Park Road, Braintree - Salads - Hostess - Joan Donovan

Dorothy Quincy Homestead 6:45 - 7:30 pm

with Rebecca Dinsmore

34 Butler Road, Quincy - Main Course-- Hostess - Kathy Meade

Kathleen Frost 7:30 - 8:15 pm

21 Dorchester Street, Squantum -Desserts-- Hostesses - Marsha Smith &
Nancy Nelson

Each home offers a unique garden. Claire's garden overlooks the Braintree Dam; it's lined with flowering trees, raspberries, and perennials. Marnie Dunn is a plant collector; her young garden is filled with an array of specialties sure to spark your interest. The Dorothy Quincy House has a lovely period garden with heirloom herbs, boxwood and perennials, planted and maintained by WGC member, Rebecca Dinsmore. Kathleen Frost's Squantum home boasts a breathtaking panoramic view of Boston, and a collection of white flowers and many hydrangeas.

The tour will include a Plant Sale of selected plants from members' gardens.

Rain date for the event is Friday, June 26th.

Purchase a Guest Ticket for $12.00 from Pat Artis